The St Hilary School Curriculum

It is great to see that the new Ofsted framework, introduced in September 2019, has put a real emphasis on delivering a broad and balanced curriculum and ensuring that there is a real depth in knowledge and skills learnt in all subjects. Our 'real project curriculum' has been developed over many years now and we were delighted that our curriculum was measured as "an undoubtable area of excellence" in our Challenge Partner review in the summer term. We are extremely proud of the breadth of the subjects that we teach, the amount of children who take part in the wide range of extra-curricular opportunities on offer, and the visible enjoyment of the children when working across the curriculum. However, with the introduction of the new framework, this is a perfect time for us to evaluate and review our curriculum.

At St Hilary, we believe that we have a duty to provide a curriculum which gives the children the knowledge, skills and confidence to achieve anything that they want to achieve - to open doors for them. Giving them the understanding of the vast range of opportunities that are beyond Cornwall, nationally and internationally, as well as fostering a love and appreciation of the qualities of the local environment. We know that we have succeeded in our intention when our children leave our school as young musicians, artists, designers, geographers, historians, sport enthusiasts, computer programmers and with high levels of skills in Maths and English. Equipped with an appropriate depth of knowledge and associated skills, our children should move into the Secondary phase of their education with a knowledge of what makes them feel challenged, relaxed, fulfilled, happy and motivated and have the resilience to apply this, regardless of their needs and socio-economic background.

We believe that when all children enjoy their learning, and feel challenged and motivated, then they become better learners.

Whilst we are very proud of the curriculum we currently offer, we have put curriculum development on our 2019-2020 School Improvement Plan. Currently, the National Curriculum is the starting point for curriculum development and the programmes of study have been carefully developed and interleaved between subjects to create engaging units of work which begin with an 'essential question' and build towards an authentic outcome.

So where next?

Over the next few weeks, all of our subject leaders will be meeting with the subject leaders from our partner schools to re-visit and agree on the key concepts for each subject - ensuring a continuity right from reception up to year 11. This will ultimately open up conversations about what makes each subject special and raise the profile of every subject. We also want to ensure that the most important subject specific vocabulary is being taught and remembered, and to have real clarity about what children at each stage of their education should know.

Giving children access to a wide range of quality subject based texts is vital in helping children to learn about each subject, and we will be looking at the books that we are using, and plan to expand this range. Our Pupil Parliament have made a great start on raising the funds needed for this, and will be holding a stall at the Christmas fair for this purpose.

Over the next few weeks, our teachers will be having fun creating 'knowledge organisers' containing the key knowledge that we want our children to be taught over the Spring term. You will receive a copy of this in the new year.

During the Spring term, each newsletter will feature a different subject to give you information on our approach to each curriculum area.....so watch this space!

Mrs K Butcher

On the 25th of November 2019 St Hilary School participated in the St Ives RFC Cross-Country race. It was hard, but we all finished with a smile on our face! We all were so proud after the race.

Caitlyn (Year 6) - It was a very challenging race and I finished with a great result - it wasn't 1st place but I tried my hardest.

Adelaide (Year 6) - It was very tough but I finished and I am very happy with the place I came!

Sam H (Year 6) - It was hard but I was determined to finish and I did!

It was a fun challenge and everyone tried their hardest, we all can't wait for our next race and to do even better. We all did super well and our legs are so exhausted! It was a good experience to have and we hope to do another one very very soon! A massive well done to everyone for their performances, but a special congratulations must go to Chris (Yr 4) and Jolie (Yr 5) who both came impressive first places in their races.
