

- What should I already know? (EYFS Understanding the world) People & Communities : Know about similarities and differences between themselves and others and among communities. The World : Looks closely at similarities & differences, patterns and change.

- What will I know by the end of the project? Different types of heroes, from comic book and fantasy film superheroes to real life and personal heroes. To explain what a hero is/does. Know the importance of our emergency services. Heroes don't always wear capes!

Key Vocabulary

Facts

Illustrations

Hero

A person who is admired because they are brave, strong and kind.

Villain

A bad character who commits wicked crimes.

Past

Happened at an earlier time. Yesterday, last week, last year, years ago.

Present

At this current time (now).

Chronology

Order of events in time.

Comic strips

A sequence of pictures that tell a story with good and bad characters. Comic books contain favourite superhero adventures

Emergency Services

People who help to save lives. Doctors & Nurses
Police, Fire Service.
Military Forces, RNLI, Coastguards.

Real life heroes are ordinary people who may be brave, kind, determined or generous.

They set a good example to others. Individuals who work or volunteer in the local community.

Men and women of the emergency services.

Superheroes are imaginary (fictional and fantasy) characters who appear in comics, books and films.

They have special powers and always try to do the right thing and save the world.

Their aim is to defeat evil villains. Battles between the force of good and evil take place.

We all have our own strengths and weaknesses but we aim to be the best that we can be!

Fantasy Superheroes

Books we will read

Emergency 999 Services

Real life heroes

